

Fraudulent Hotel Booking Alert

It has come to our attention that unauthorized companies have been contacting TLPA members in an attempt to get you to book your hotel room through them for the 99th Annual Convention & Trade Show. TLPA did not supply these companies with your contact information. They have no affiliation with TLPA and TLPA does not endorse their services.

As always, TLPA's room block is available through our website. If you book rooms through an unauthorized vendor you may lose your deposit and run the risk of not having a room reservation when you arrive in Denver.
