

TLPA Membership...Helping You Work with a Changing Industry

Today's fleet operators are diversifying their operations, blurring the lines between the taxicab, limousine, paratransit and other segments of for-hire transportation. To help you work more effectively with them, TLPA provides public sector entities, such as state and local regulatory bodies, with a membership experience that offers engagement opportunities and insight into the entire industry.

Educational institutions, both public and private, may accept this invitation to join TLPA and become public sector members.
